FORUM index 1983-87

Articles are indexed by general subject and, where applicable, by country or area and product. In each entry the issue volume number precedes the date. An index is published in the first issue of each year.

General

Advertising and publicity
Monitoring competitors' promotional activities to obtain marketing data XXI/3 July-Sept 85 p. 4
Group promotions for export firms: Ireland's scheme XXI/2 Apr-June 85 p. 4
Drawing up a chamber's publicity programme: part two XXI/1 Jan-Mar 85 p. 20
Drawing up a publicity programme for a chamber's trade promotion work XX/4 Oct-Dec 84 p. 4

Agents, commercial
A four-step approach to selecting an overseas agent XX/4 Oct-Dec 84 p. 10
Your export middleman: making a wise decision XX/2 Apr-June 84 p. 14
Selling through agents: the law in three Middle East markets XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 4

Caribbean Development Bank
Spices–a nontraditional export for micro-economies XIX/1 Jan-Mar 83 p. 14

Chambers of commerce
Finnish chambers of commerce: their foreign trade services XXI/2 Apr-June 85 p. 10
Drawing up a chamber's publicity programme: part two XXI/1 Jan-Mar 85 p. 20
Drawing up a publicity programme for a chamber's trade promotion work XX/4 Oct-Dec 84 p. 4
Staffing chambers for foreign trade activities XIX/1 Jan-Mar 83 p. 18

Commercial representatives, official
Criteria for selecting trade representation offices abroad XIX/2 Apr-June 83 p. 10

Evaluation
Evaluating trade promotion: some guidelines XXIII/4 Oct-Dec 87 p. 14

Export product development
Determining product suitability for export XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 18

Fairs, exhibitions
How to organize an export services show XXIII/1 Jan-Mar 87 p. 8
Building the stand XXIII/1 Jan-Mar 87 p. 16
Deciding on stand design and furnishings XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 22
Lighting and colour for a trade fair stand XXII/2 Apr-June 86 p. 14
Graphics for a trade fair stand XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 14
Product display at a trade fair XXI/4 Oct-Dec 85 p. 10
Stand layout for a trade fair XXI/3 July-Sept 85 p. 10
Group promotions for export firms: Ireland's scheme XXI/2 Apr-June 85 p. 4
Designing a trade fair stand XXI/2 Apr-June 85 p. 16
Operating a business information centre at an international fair XX/3 July-Sept 84 p. 4
Planning and budgeting for trade fair participation XIX/2 Apr-June 83 p. 22
Stand management and follow-up XIX/1 Jan-Mar 83 p. 12

FAO
Market information on fish XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 8

Financing, export
Export-oriented financial institutions: a vital element for trade promotion XXI/1 Jan-Mar 85 p. 4
The banking system: its role in export development XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 4
The Berne Union: supporting the trade promotion efforts of developing countries XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 14

Handling
Managing import operations effectively: some basic advice for those new to the job XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 14

Import operations and techniques
Verifying that imports meet the buyer's requirements XXIII/2 Apr-June 87 p. 22
Evaluating bids for imports XXIII/1 Jan-Mar 87 p. 12
Importing goods: how to define the requirements for suppliers XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 18
Essential elements of international tendering XXI/4 Oct-Dec 85 p. 4
In-house information units for import agencies XX/1 Jan-Mar 84 p. 10
Finding the right supplier XX/1 Jan-Mar 84 p. 16
Information requirements for importing chemical fertilizers XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 22
Managing import operations effectively: some basic advice for those new to the job XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 14

ITC services
ITC's 20th anniversary–special section XX/3 July-Sept 84 p. 24
Spices–a nontraditional export for micro-economies XIX/1 Jan-Mar 83 p. 14

Legal aspects of trade
The international sales contract–central to trade transactions XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 14
Letters of credit: how to use them in your international business transactions XXIII/1 Jan-Mar 87 p. 4
The international transport contract XXI/4 Oct-Dec 85 p. 26
Insurance for export shipments XXI/3 July-Sept 85 p. 18
Selling through agents: the law in three Middle East markets XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 4

Marketing
Wooden packaging: an important role in export operations XXIII/4 Oct-Dec 87 p. 10
Product marketing programmes: an instrument for effective trade promotion XXIII/4 Oct-Dec 87 p. 22
Reducing quality costs to improve export earnings XXIII/4 Oct-Dec 87 p. 26
Developing new export products of the right quality XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 4
Some pointers on packaging handicraft products XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 9

FORUM index

The international sales contract–central to trade transactions XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 14
How companies can improve the quality of their export products XXIII/2 Apr-June 87 p. 18
Letters of credit: how to use them in your international business transactions XXIII/1 Jan-Mar 87 p. 4
Honey exports: possibilities in a highly competitive market XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 4
Developing the export of technical consulting services XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 8
Caution is called for in marketing essential oils and spice oleoresins XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 26
New export opportunities expected for builders' woodwork XXII/2 Apr-June 86 p. 4
Monitoring competitors' promotional activities to obtain marketing data XXI/3 July-Sept 85 p. 4
A four-step approach to selecting an overseas agent XX/4 Oct-Dec 84 p. 10
Exporting consumer goods to the United States: 12 ways to locate a buyer XX/4 Oct-Dec 84 p. 14
General terms and conditions–an important element in foreign trade transactions XX/4 Oct-Dec 84 p. 24
Hand-knotted carpets–market openings for quality goods XX/3 July-Sept 84 p. 12
The shrimp trade–a big business for developing countries XX/2 Apr-June 84 p. 4
Your export middleman: making a wise decision XX/2 Apr-June 84 p. 14
Agricultural machinery: good prospects for trade among developing countries XX/2 Apr-June 84 p. 20
Marketing prospects for wooden household furniture XX/1 Jan-Mar 84 p. 4
Market openings in West Africa for cowpeas and Bambara groundnuts XX/1 Jan-Mar 84 p. 14
A market for other developing countries–the Republic of Korea XX/1 Jan-Mar 84 p. 20
Entering the international leather goods market–advice for the new exporter XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 8
Determining product suitability for export XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 18
Selling through agents: the law in three Middle East markets XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 4
Techniques for exporting to China XIX/1 Jan-Mar 83 p. 8

Packaging
Wooden packaging: an important role in export operations XXIII/4 Oct-Dec 87 p. 10
Some pointers on packaging handicrafts products XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 9
Managing import operations effectively: some basic advice for those new to the job XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 14

Publications
Developing an exporters' register for trade promotion work XXI/4 Oct-Dec 85 p. 14

Quality control
Reducing quality costs to improve export earnings XXIII/4 Oct-Dec 87 p. 26
Developing new export products of the right quality XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 4
How companies can improve the quality of their export products XXIII/2 Apr-June 87 p. 18

Services of governments
An overseas branch office: a tool for market entry XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 20
Human resources development: an essential part of trade promotion XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 14
Computerizing trade information services: DeCTA's experience XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 6
UKTA: ten years as a catalyst for trade expansion XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 24

Trade among developing countries
Bicycles offer potential for trade among developing countries XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 4
Colombia–market opportunities for other developing countries XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 22

Trade information services
Practical ways to build up a file on foreign importers XXIII/2 Apr-June 87 p. 10
How to use external on-line databases for trade promotion XXIII/2 Apr-June 87 p. 26
Management's role in creating an exporters' register XXII/2 Apr-June 86 p. 18
Computerizing trade information services: DeCTA's experience XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 6
Refining trade data analysis for trade promotion XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 18
Developing an exporters' register for trade promotion work XXI/4 Oct-Dec 85 p. 14
Sources of marketing information on the socialist countries of Eastern Europe XXI/3 July-Sept 85 p. 22
Operating a business information centre at an international fair XX/3 July-Sept 84 p. 4
In-house information units for import agencies XX/1 Jan-Mar 84 p. 10
Information requirements for importing chemical fertilizers XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 22
Market information on fish XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 8

Trade procedures
The international sales contract–central to trade transactions XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 14
Letters of credit: how to use them in your international business transactions XXIII/1 Jan-Mar 87 p. 4
General terms and conditions–an important element in foreign trade transactions XX/4 Oct-Dec 84 p. 24

Trade promotion organizations
Group promotions for export firms: Ireland's scheme XXI/2 Apr-June 85 p. 4
Programming, budgeting and evaluation–three essential management functions of a TPO XXI/2 Apr-June 85 p. 22
Organizational features of a national trade promotion organization XX/4 Oct-Dec 84 p. 20
Sri Lanka's Export Development Board–a comprehensive approach to export development XX/2 Apr-June 84 p. 8

Trade promotion techniques
Evaluating trade promotion: some guidelines XXIII/4 Oct-Dec 87 p. 14
Product marketing programmes: an instrument for effective trade promotion XXIII/4 Oct-Dec 87 p. 22

FORUM index

An overseas branch office: a tool for market entry XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 20
Preparing national trade promotion programmes XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 24
Practical ways to build up a file on foreign importers XXIII/2 Apr-June 87 p. 10
How to use external on-line databases for trade promotion XXIII/2 Apr-June 87 p. 26
How to organize an export services show XXIII/1 Jan-Mar 87 p. 8
Building the stand XXIII/1 Jan-Mar 87 p. 16
Developing the export of technical consulting services XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 8
Deciding on stand design and furnishings XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 22
Lighting and colour for a trade fair stand XXII/2 Apr-June 86 p. 14
Management's role in creating an exporters' register XXII/2 Apr-June 86 p. 18
Graphics for a trade fair stand XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 14
Refining trade data analysis for trade promotion XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 18
Product display at a trade fair XXI/4 Oct-Dec 85 p. 10
Developing an exporters' register for trade promotion work XXI/4 Oct-Dec 85 p. 14
Stand layout for a trade fair XXI/3 July-Sept 85 p. 10
Group promotions for export firms: Ireland's scheme XXI/2 Apr-June 85 p. 4
Designing a trade fair stand XXI/2 Apr-June 85 p. 16
Programming, budgeting and evaluation–three essential management functions of a TPO XXI/2 Apr-June 85 p. 22
Export-oriented financial institutions: a vital element for trade promotion XXI/1 Jan-Mar 85 p. 4
A case history in export success: the Republic of Korea XXI/1 Jan-Mar 85 p. 14
Organizational features of a national trade promotion organization XX/4 Oct-Dec 84 p. 20
Operating a business information centre at an international fair XX/3 July-Sept 84 p. 4
Developing your own case materials XX/3 July-Sept 84 p. 8
Sri Lanka's Export Development Board–a comprehensive approach to export development XX/2 Apr-June 84 p. 8
The banking system: its role in export development XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 4
The Berne Union: supporting the trade promotion efforts of developing countries XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 14
How Nepal launched a national export strategy XIX/2 Apr-June 83 p. 4
Criteria for selecting trade representation offices abroad XIX/2 Apr-June 83 p. 10
How nontraditionals have spearheaded Philippine export growth XIX/2 Apr-June 83 p. 16
Planning and budgeting for trade fair participation XIX/2 Apr-June 83 p. 22
Stand management and follow-up XIX/1 Jan-Mar 83 p. 12

Training

Training joint ventures as a means to expand educational programmes in foreign trade XXIII/4 Oct-Dec 87 p. 4
Human resources development: an essential part of trade promotion XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 14
Assessing the needs and means for foreign trade training XXII/2 Apr-June 86 p. 8
How to organize, present and evaluate training activities XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 10
Developing your own case materials XX/3 July-Sept 84 p. 8

Transport

The international transport contract XXI/4 Oct-Dec 85 p. 26
Managing import operations effectively: some basic advice for those new to the job XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 14

Products and services

Agricultural machinery

Agricultural machinery: good prospects for trade among developing countries XXI/2 Apr-June 84 p. 20

Animal feeds

Animal feed ingredients–export opportunities for developing countries XXI/4 Oct-Dec 85 p. 23

Bicycles

Bicycles offer potential for trade among developing countries XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 4

Carpets

Hand-knotted carpets–market openings for quality goods XX/3 July-Sept 84 p. 12

Ceramic tiles

Ceramic tiles–a market with favourable prospects over the long term XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 24

Cocoa

Marketing cocoa: essential features of the trade XXIII/2 Apr-June 87 p. 4

Essential oils

Caution is called for in marketing essential oils and spice oleoresins XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 26

Fertilizers

Information requirements for importing chemical fertilizers XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 22

Fish

Market information on fish XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 8

Gemstones

Gemstone marketing XXI/3 July-Sept 85 p. 16

Handicrafts

Some pointers on packaging handicraft products XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 9

Honey

Honey exports: possibilities in a highly competitive market XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 4

Jewellery

Potential for imitation jewellery XXI/3 July-Sept 85 p. 26

FORUM index

Leather goods
Entering the international leather goods market–advice for the new exporter XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 8

Legumes
Market openings in West Africa for cowpeas and Bambara groundnuts XX/1 Jan-Mar 84 p. 14

Meats
Horse and rabbit meat markets–possible outlets for exporters in developing countries XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 11

Medicinal plants
Botanicals–increasing potential for pharmaceutical applications XIX/2 Apr-June 83 p. 26

Nonconventional energy equipment
Attractive market prospects for nonconventional energy equipment XXIII/2 Apr-June 87 p. 16

Pet products
Europe's dynamic market for pet products XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 18

Rice
Imports of rice into the Middle East market levelling off XXI/1 Jan-Mar 85 p. 10

Shrimps
The shrimp trade–a big business for developing countries XX/2 Apr-June 84 p. 4

Spices
The international spice trade: export opportunities for the rural sector XIX/1 Jan-Mar 83 p. 4
Spices–a nontraditional export for micro-economies XIX/1 Jan-Mar 83 p. 14

Technical consulting services
Developing the export of technical consulting services XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 8

Wood products
New export opportunities expected for builders' woodwork XXII/2 Apr-June 86 p. 4
Marketing prospects for wooden household furniture XX/1 Jan-Mar 84 p. 4

Geographic

Bahrain
Selling through agents: the law in three Middle East markets XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 4

China
Techniques for exporting to China XIX/1 Jan-Mar 83 p. 8

Colombia
Colombia–market opportunities for other developing countries XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 22

Czechoslovakia
Czechoslovak market offers sales opportunities for developing countries XXIII/4 Oct-Dec 87 p. 18

Finland
Finnish chambers of commerce: their foreign trade services XXI/2 Apr-June 85 p. 10

Hungary
Hungarian market offers sales possibilities for developing countries XXII/2 Apr-June 86 p. 24

Ireland
Group promotions for export firms: Ireland's scheme XXI/2 Apr-June 85 p. 4
Criteria for selecting trade representation offices abroad XIX/2 Apr-June 83 p. 10

Kuwait
Selling through agents: the law in three Middle East markets XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 4

Middle East
Imports of rice into the Middle East market levelling off XXI/1 Jan-Mar 85 p. 10
Selling through agents: the law in three Middle East markets XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 4

Nepal
How Nepal launched a national export strategy XIX/2 Apr-June 83 p. 4

Netherlands
An overseas branch office: a tool for market entry XXIII/3 July-Sept 87 p. 20
Human resources development: an essential part of trade promotion XXII/3 July-Sept 86 p. 14

Philippines
How nontraditionals have spearheaded Philippine export growth XIX/2 Apr-June 83 p. 16

Republic of Korea
A case history in export success: the Republic of Korea XXI/1 Jan-Mar 85 p. 14
A market for other developing countries–the Republic of Korea XX/1 Jan-Mar 84 p. 20

Socialist countries of Eastern Europe
Sources of marketing information on the socialist countries of Eastern Europe XXI/3 July-Sept 85 p. 22

Sri Lanka
Sri Lanka's Export Development Board–a comprehensive approach to export development XX/2 Apr-June 84 p. 8

United Arab Emirates
Selling through agents: the law in three Middle East markets XIX/3 July-Sept 83 p. 4

United Kingdom
Computerizing trade information services: DeCTA's experience XXII/1 Jan-Mar 86 p. 6
UKTA: ten years as a catalyst for trade expansion XIX/4 Oct-Dec 83 p. 24

USA
Exporting consumer goods to the United States: 12 ways to locate a buyer XX/4 Oct-Dec 84 p. 14